THE STUDENT

Class of '44

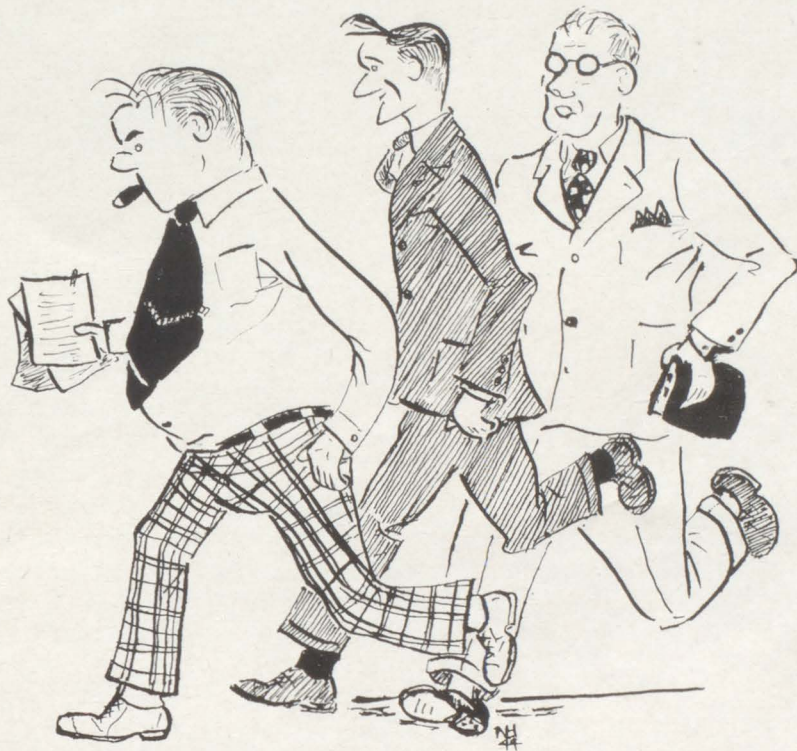

F O R E W O R D

As a leading tribute to the many successes of our three high school years, we, the class of 1944 present this-- the Student.

• INFORMAL SHOTS OF THE GANG AT PORT HURON HIGH SCHOOL •

FACULTY

THE STUDENT

NEW TEACHERS

Mrs. Campbell is the librarian who has taken Mrs. Hock's place. She taught at the Lincoln and was the substitute Librarian at J.C. before coming to high school.

Mrs. Richardson, also a teacher from the Washington, teaches History and English.

Miss Donaldson, our new language teacher who came from J.C., divides her time between Spanish and French.

The new machine drawing teacher is Mr. Burnell. He taught at Fenton and Washington Junior High before coming to P.H.H.S. Mr. Burnell has a class in General Metals and a third hour study hall besides his other classes.

Not new to some, but new to High School, is Mr. Fred Patterson, who came from Washington Junior High to teach geometry in 314.

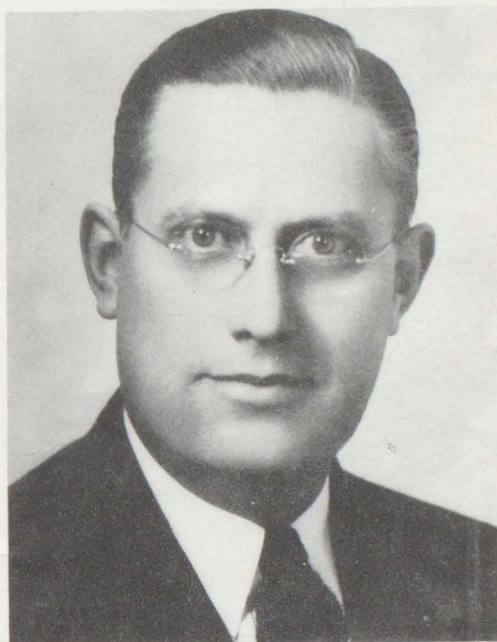

Miss McIntyre, who formerly taught at Junior College, is the girl's councilor. In the fall, she took Miss Drescher's place teaching Typing.

Miss Powell, who is from Grant Junior High, teaches Social Arithmetic in 401. She is sponsor of the 10B class and also of two art clubs.

MR. TOMLINSON

We, the class of '44, wish to thank Mr. Tomlinson for his cooperation and friendly spirit, which, along with his keen sense of humor, has added greatly to our stay at Port Huron High.

MR. CRULL

Mr. Crull, Superintendent of Schools in Port Huron, has been one of our guiding lights; and his inspiration will long remain with us.

MISS CATON

Miss Alice Caton was the very capable advisor of the January class. Through her efforts, this small class enjoyed a successful and happy high school career, both financially and socially.

MISS REID

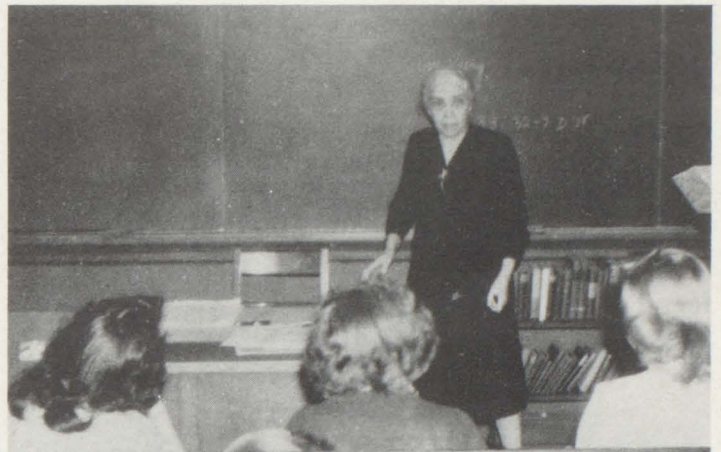

The June class of 1944 is a very large one and we are fortunate to have Miss Etta Reid as our sponsor. We will long remember the extra special interest which she took in our class.

Miss B. Woodward is caught teaching her English class something about bibliographies.

Mr. Bond looks engrossed in teaching his physics students about batteries.

Miss MacLaren teaches English, besides supervising the publication of the Student.

Mr. Batka directs our senior plays for us and also teaches public speaking.

"Brick" is seen here in a pose that is very characteristic of him.

Even though Mr. Secory has left us now, he was snapped proving his strength.

Miss Reid, the June class advisor, is busily working at her desk.

CAST

The February class, under the direction of George F. Batka, presented the Broadway hit, "Best Foot Forward".

The play revolved around Bud Hooper, a student at Winsoki Prep, who invited the glamorous actress, Gale Joy, to be his guest at the senior prom, and the problems which developed with his regular girl and the head master at Winsoki.

JUNE SENIOR PLAY

The June class of 1944 presented as its' senior play "Ring Around Elizabeth", directed by George Batka.

Elizabeth is the hard-taxed center of an irritating household. Her husband is a dullard; one of her daughters is hysterically in love with a cynical playboy; the other is very precocious. Reaching the breaking point, Elizabeth contracts a nice case of amnesia, in which twenty years are blotted out and she is a girl again. This eventually results in improving the whole family.

THE SERVICE FLAG

At one of the most impressive assemblies we have witnessed at Port Huron High School, the school honored its alumni with the presentation of a service flag.

This flag, with its nineteen gold and one thousand two hundred twenty four blue stars, was presented by Eugene Winkleman, Student Council president, to Mr. Tomlinson, who accepted it on behalf of the school.

Many of our alumni were at the assembly, representing the various branches of the armed forces. Lieutenant Frank Lavis, Jr., told us about his many experiences, while in the paratroops.

This flag is an incentive to all who pass it on their way to class, and it is a daily reminder of the many sacrifices of our boys, who have given up so much, even their lives.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL '43

Following the return of Frank Secory to Port Huron as head football coach after a short leave of absence, Port Huron High's football fortunes rose to the highest point since 1937's squad brought the state championship here. Under the guidance of Coach Secory and the leadership of Captain Charlie Myron, the Reds won six games while dropping only two contests and also regained the "Little Brown Jug", which has rested for five years previous in the Mt. Clemens trophy case.

From eight lettermen and a turnout of eighty candidates for berths on the squad, Coach Secory chose a starting lineup for the first game with Roseville. Captain Myron, Jack Campbell, Buddy Floyd, and Al Touma were in the backfield, while Chuck Cotton, end, Dean Streeter, guard and Bob Livingston, center, formed the nucleus of the line. Walt Gorte, end, Bud Hicks, guard, and Don Kerr and Ray Setter, tackles, were the remainder of the starting crew.

In the season's opener, September 17, the Reds swept Roseville to a 25 to 0 defeat, with Touma, Floyd, Richards, and Cotton scoring.

For the second game, the Seccrymen traveled to Ferndale, where they beat the Detroit school, 6 to 0, by virtue of guard Streeter's 30 yard touchdown dash after catching a fumble of fullback Touma.

The Reds met their first defeat at the hands of Ann Arbor, when they were beaten 27-13. Ken Washington's 90 yard punt return for a touchdown with four minutes to go, was the feature of the game.

Friday, October 8, Mt. Clemens and the "Little Brown Jug" came to town, but only the team went back. The Secory-men, sparked by Jack Campbell, overcame a 12 point lead in the second half to win, for the first time in five years, 20-12. Ed Slingerland provided what later was the margin of victory, when he made a remarkable catch of a 25 yard pass from Buddy Floyd. The Reds converted on a pass from Myron to Cotton to put them ahead 13-12, from where they scored again, this time by Floyd. In this game, Norbert Smith and Slingerland won starting berths.

The next week, the Red Whites went to Jackson, where they lost 32-6 on a field of mud. Sparked by All State halfback Joe Lozier, the Jackson team overcame a 6-0 lead and won.

October 29, the Reds defeated Van Dyke 25-0. Buddy Floyd's 80 yard return of the opening kickoff and Jack Campbell's two, thirty yard dashes off tackle for touchdowns were the outstanding plays of the game. The reserves played the entire second half.

Port Huron ended the season by defeating Grosse Point 27-6. J. Campbell, Floyd, Touma, and Cotton, scored for the Reds. It was the last game for seniors Myron, Jack and Herb Campbell, Eddie Russell, Cotton, Slingerland, Jim Ullenbruch, Morris Johnston, Winkleman, Smith, Bud Hicks, Streeter, Milt Brown and Hubert Lucas.

THE STUDENT

BASKETBALL

The 1943-44 edition of P.H.H.S. basketball team continued the winning record that has been compiled by all Fowler coached teams since "Brick" has been here. Although this year's Red Whites played in and out ball, they ended the season with a record of ten wins against six defeats.

The Fowllermen opened their schedule by trekking to East Detroit to run up a 61-20 score, with Ken Ingerson popping seventeen points against the Detroit club. However, the next week the Reds, hard hit by the "flu" dropped a 33-26 decision to the Flint Northern Vikings, despite the outstanding plays of Don Kerr.

Following that, the representatives of P.H.H.S. opened the home season with a 22-18 win over Ford Trade School Craftsmen. After Christmas vacation, they continued in their in and out way, by losing to Ferndale 18-14. The boys began to hit their stride, when they followed it up with a 43-15 walloping of Van Dyke.

Against a tall Toledo Libbey team, our boys sparked by Captain Phare and Ingerson, fought their way to a 25-22 victory. Grosse Pointe came to town the next Saturday and PH boys promised center Walt Gorte the game, as it was his last of the season. In the final ten seconds Phare gave Gorte that present with a one handed push shot from the center of the floor, giving Port Huron a 29-28 win.

Toledo Waite cracked the Red's winning streak with a 34-26 defeat, and East Detroit avenged their earlier shellacking by handing the Reds a 26-25 setback. Following this reverse, the Fowllermen left the country to take a game from London 26-16. The team turned the tables on Ferndale in a return game, by winning 32-18, but the next week lost 29-22 to Ford Trade. The Reds closed the season against Mt. Clemens with Ed Russell and Jim Ullenbruch breaking into the lineup and helping along the 32-19 win.

In the I.M.A. tournament in Flint, we defeated Saginaw Eastern 32-27, but the next night bowed out of the tourney, when we lost to Flint Central 30-19.

At the annual basketball assembly, "Brick" awarded letters to Fred Phare, Walt Gorte, Milt Brown, Bob Buntrock, Don Kerr, Jim Ullenbruch, Bill Ullenbruch, Ray Everitt, Ed Russell, Ken Ingerson, Wayne Bovee, Don Lawson, Andy Pochodylo, and Manager "Butch" Phare.

The Clarence Phare Memorial Trophy given annually to the boy outstanding in sportsmanship and for his love of the game was presented to Captain Fred Phare by Fred Vincent, sports editor of the Times Herald.

BASEBALL '44

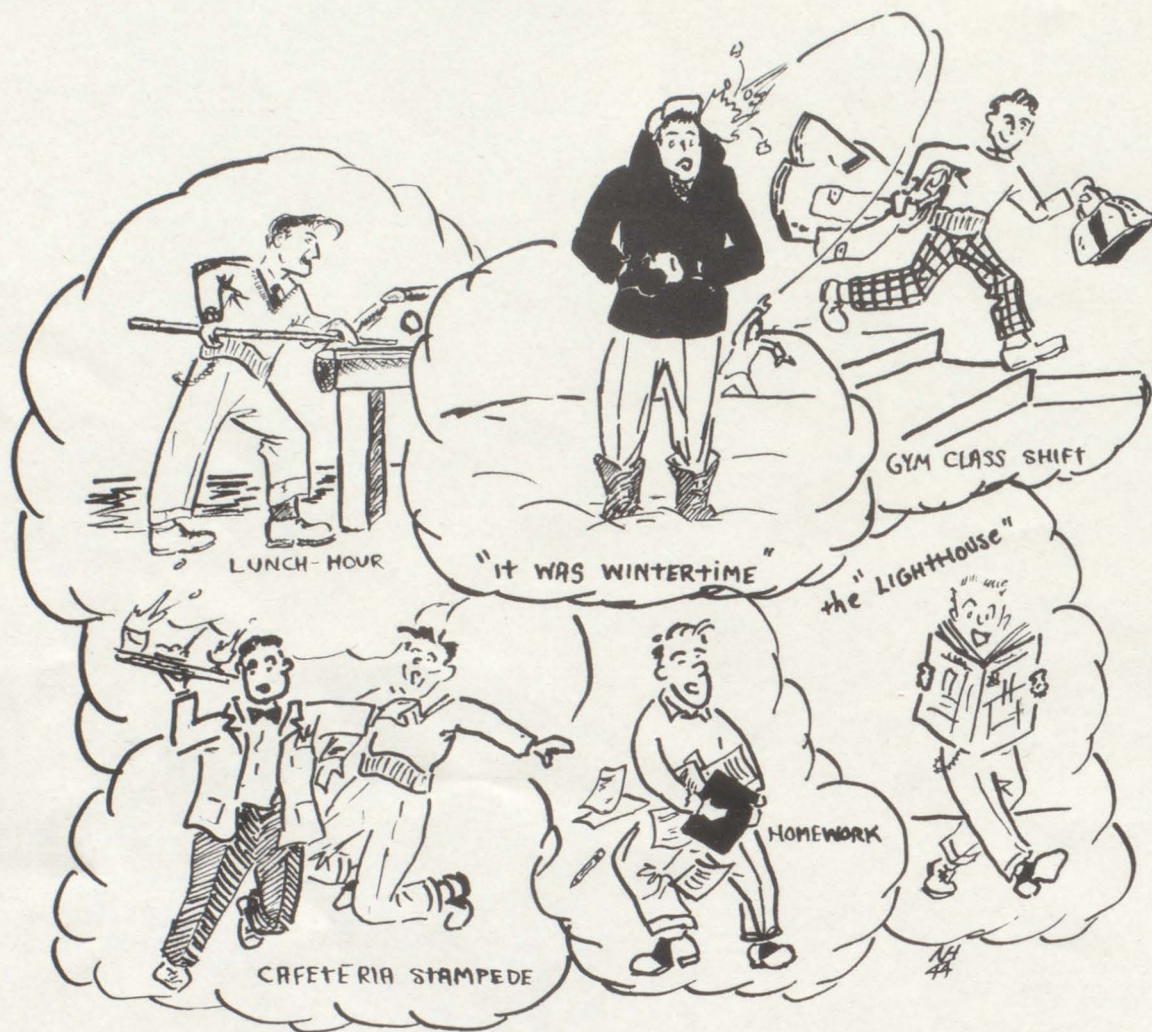

After the resignation of Coach Frank Secory, who is playing ball with the Milwaukee Brewers in the American Association, Athletic Director "Brick" Fowler announced the appointment of Al Dimon as head baseball coach.

With Fred Phare, Don Lawson, Ed Russell, Chuck Myron, and Eugene Winklemen, lettermen, back from last year's team, Coach Dimon put a team together that had Milt Brown, Ray Perry, catchers; Don Lawson, Jim Ullenbruch, Dick Cain, pitchers;

Ed Slingerland, Jerry Alexander, Fred Phare, John Hazley, Chuck Perkins, Ed Russell, Wayne Bovee, Bill Hicks, infield; and Andy Pochodylo, Joe Zauner, Chuck Myron, Eugene Winkleman, Chuck Cotton, and Ken Washington, outfielders.

The officers are: President, Evelyn Caughill; Vice President, Ron Reed; and Secretary, Lyman Anderson.

Lorraine Ledsworth and Arlene Simpson take care of the music, and Arlene also has charge of the band's uniforms. Ron Reed and Don Davidson have the task of setting up the chairs each day.

CHOIR

Choir this year has 164 enrolled, the largest number we have ever had. Sixty are seniors who will be graduated in June. Besides the usual concerts and public appearances, several unusual activities have occupied our time and talents. Outstanding among these is the Choir News Letter, published at intervals, for the purpose of keeping former Choir members now in Service informed as to our doings, etc.

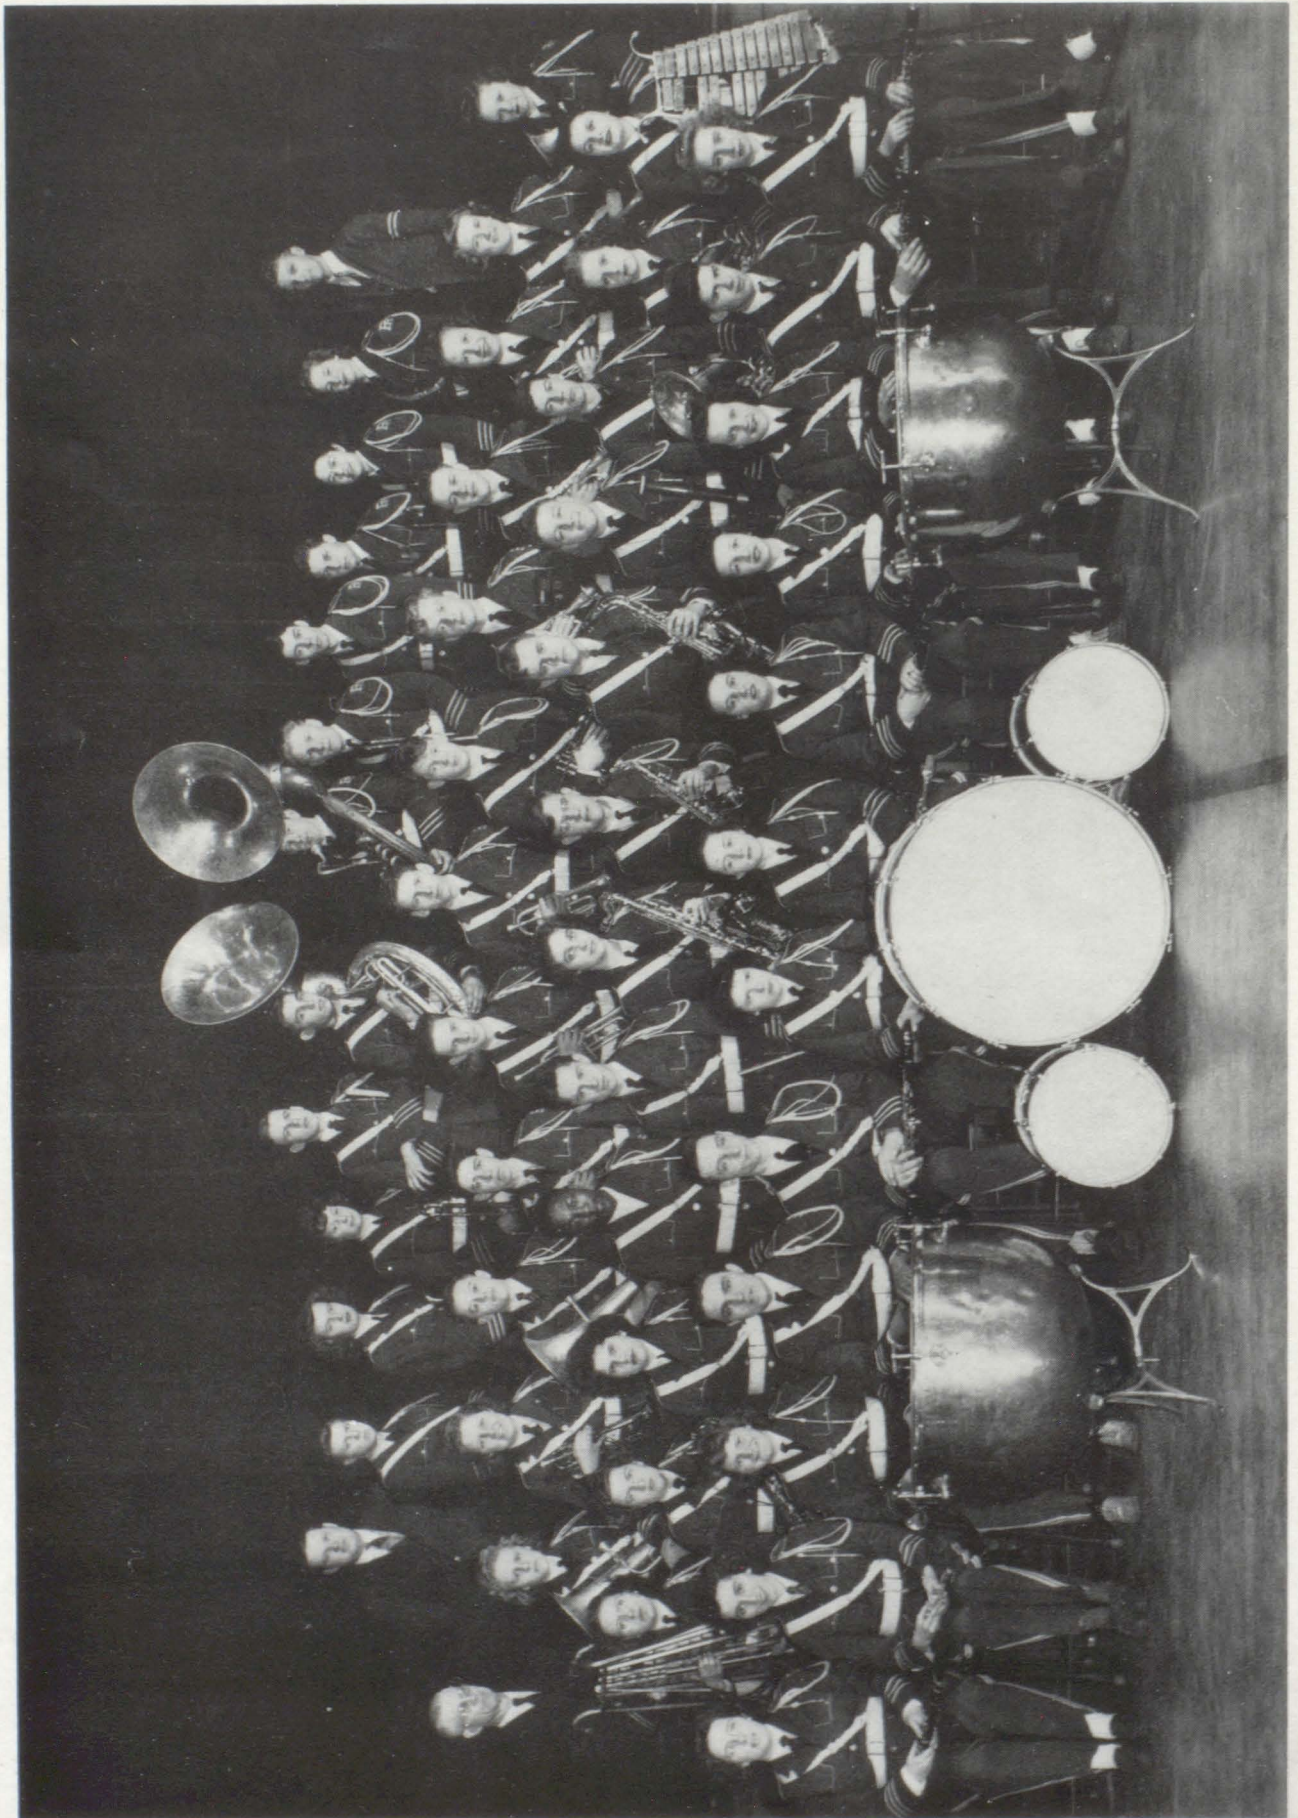

Another project, new this year, was the sponsoring of the Roth String Quartette, a nationally known organization. As a result of the concert, we were able to give $25 to the Youth Advancement Committee.

Choir also has turned athletic. It has always been the custom for the tenors and basses to compete in baseball at the annual picnic in June.

However, in February, the basses challenged the tenors in basketball. The final score was Basses 38, Tenors 18.

The officers of the Choir are: President, Jim McNeice; Secretary, Priscilla Gibbs; Treasurer, Andy Pochodylo; Pianist, Nancy Pringle; Librarian, Ramon Burge and Assistant, Alan Davis.

Because of transportation difficulties, it is impossible to hold a state festival during wartime. Instead, the Michigan School Vocal Association has planned a small festival, to which each high school will send eight students on May 12. The eight are: Dawn West, Ruth Curtis, Dorothy Collins, Eileen Young, Bob Saunders, Jim Rowell, Andy Pochodylo, and Eugene Winkleman.

We were all glad to see Fred Phare receive the Phare Memorial Trophy.

Remember the assemblies when June Dillon fearlessly held the snake, and Eddie Anderson showed us he was also a strong man.

Mr. Tomlinson is flanked by the Navy at a high school dance.

Again we have three of our cheerleaders. Ned Hubble, Charles Tallmadge, and Bob Gillet ready for the locomotive.

"Mac" and Jack are also a familiar sight.

Lonely pose, Wally -- Don't you think Jack Montross's hand gives a rather blank expression to J. D. Smith's face??????

Art Bradley and Winnie Oussoren certainly look dignified in their caps and gowns.

The front steps are usually crowded before bells, and here we caught a few of the gang.

Evelyn Schumaker and Peggy LaFrance seemed to be amused about some private joke.

"Winkie" was snapped as he boarded the bus for home.

Wonder why the disgusted look on the faces of Mary Wessel and Anne West? Bill Howard doesn't seem to mind.

It must have been windy when Jeanne Johnson was snapped. That's Bert Dental hiding.

Why the face, Wally?

Ginnie Adams is seen entering the school.

This window looks in on slaving students at P.H.H.S.

Marian Beech and Evelyn Carghill coming in.

What happened Ned, is the ice slippery?

Frank Smith and Mary Mac-Taggart were snapped being snapped at the "Spotlight".

Tobogganning is great sport, especially for Pat Tilly, Patsy Pearce, and Cy McNinch.

Wally Wirtz, Jean McDonald and Bill Smith seem to be intent on having their pictures taken.

Someone is in the Physics room -- Guess who?????

Bathing beauties, Virginia Wasmuth, Shirley Stinson and June Dillon seem to be enjoying the water.

Charles Tallmadge proves to be quite an acrobat.

Some of the February 12A girls were caught out in front.

The kids down at Ruffs seem to be up to something.

There's that man again.

Frank Oslin, surrounded.
Happy, Frank?

Leo and Ginnie, a most familiar sight, were snapped out in front of school.

Ned's feet seem to be very important, but he shouldn't be ignoring Mari Lu.

The gangs were caught at odd moments.

Remember the Mt. Clemens game? No wonder the boys are so proud of "The Little Brown Jug".

Our cheer leaders: Bob Gillet, Ned Hubble, Charles Tallmadge, Marilyn Anson, Lois Frank and Lillian Langolf were snapped at the side of school.

Skating seems to be a popular sport for Carol Wheaton.

"Phoebe" and "Whitie" were snapped in front of Ruffs.

Of course, we all remember the assembly at which the Service was presented. Here is Frank Lavis telling of his experiences.
